FAIR PRACTICES CODE

INTRODUCTION

The Reserve Bank of India vide Chapter VI of its Master Direction – Non Banking Financial Company – Systematically Important Non-Deposit taking Company and Deposit taking Company dated 01 September, 2016 of has issued guidelines on Fair Practices Code for Non-Banking Finance Companies which sets the fair practices standards when dealing with individual customers and to serve as a part of best corporate practice.

It is, and shall be, our policy to make credit products available to all qualified applicants without discrimination on the basis of race, caste, colour, religion, gender, marital status, age or handicap.

Our policy is to treat all the clients consistently and fairly. Our employees will offer assistance, encouragement and service in a fair, equitable and consistent manner. We will also communicate our Fair Practices Code to our customers by placing it on the company's website in English and major vernacular languages.

We shall ensure that charges/fees which affect the interest of the prospective borrowers are appropriately informed to the borrower. Terms and conditions pertaining to the facility will be conveyed to the prospective borrowers. We commit that disputes arising out of the lending decisions will be appropriately resolved by a grievance redressal mechanism set up by us.

We will ensure that the implementation of the Fair Practices Code is the responsibility of the entire organisation. The Company's Fair lending practices shall apply across all aspects of our operations including marketing, loan origination, processing, servicing and collection activities. Our commitment to Fair Practice Code would be demonstrated in terms of employee accountability, monitoring and auditing programs, training and technology.

The Company's Board of Directors and the management Team is responsible for establishing practices designed to ensure that our operations reflect our strong commitment to fair lending and that all employees are aware of that commitment.
